

Song Lyrics

By Chantelle Bee (Belanger-Sam)

I just need you here with me feat and produced by 9am

I just need you here with me

need you here by my side baby I want you I want you I want you

im standing here

feeling all alone the darkness creeping in my heart turning to stone

I just need you here with me

please come back to me

set my soul free

please come home

come home

need you here by my side (2x)

I just need you here with me

need you here by my side please come home baby

I need you oh how I need you

come home

come home
I need you home I just need you home I want you

I just need you home with me I just need you by my side baby just set my soul free oh how I miss you dearly I just need you baby and I want you nightly come home please come home
