

Song Lyrics

By Chantelle Bee (Belanger-Sam)

kiss me goodnight

anno domini nation production twilights embrace where hearts collide we stand at a crossroads with tears we hide aching whispers fill the air as time drifts by give me one more night before we say goodbye

let our souls intertwine
promise me forever
one last time
tell me you love me with all your might

before you depart before you

leave my life

(Tell me you love me all night all night Kiss me goodnight (2))

The stars are witnesses to our loves final dance once in separable now has turned to no romance let us savor these echos of passions flame before our fate unravels and lays is down to blame

(Tell me you love me all night all night Kiss me goodnight (2))

hold me close darlin as we face the night thought the paths we take tonight I will hold you tight whispers hope of future even though we know its not right just give me one more night even if pretend for the night
